

JAMES JACKSON

District 3

Biography

Jim Jackson is a native of Owensburg who has served on the UDWI Board of Directors as Vice President.

Jackson holds the position as director to Indiana Statewide Association of RECs. He currently sits on Indiana Statewide's Resolutions Committee where he actively pursues answers to the challenges faced by the electric industry. Jim holds a Credentialed Cooperative Director designation.

During his years of service, Jim has seen many changes in the industry, including technological improvements and the addition of diversified services.

"Over the past years, the changes have been amazing," he remarked. "Going forward, cooperatives will be facing more challenges than ever with issues such as climate change and the rising cost of power at the forefront."

To keep active, the retired boilermaker from Crane Naval Surface Warfare Center works part-time on a 1,500-acre cattle farm and tends to his own property.

Jim and Sharon, his wife over 50 years, have three children and four grandchildren. Jim is a proud veteran of the U.S. Navy
