

ROGER SHAKE

District 5

Biography

Shake was born in Linton, Indiana. He and his wife Cleta have owned and operated a farm southwest of Linton for 39 years. The couple has sons, Lucas and Casey Shake. Lucas and his wife Jessica have been married for 12 years and have a son, Silas, who is 18 months old.

Roger holds a Credentialed Cooperative Director designation and currently serves on the UDWI Board of Director as Secretary. He enjoys his time out in the country and on his farm. In his spare time, he hunts mushrooms and attends basketball games.

Roger serves in a number of community organizations. He has been a member of the White River Valley School Board since 2001, having previously served as president. He previously served on the Stafford Township Advisory Board and currently serves as a trustee at the Sandborn United Methodist Church and as a member of the Peter Hill & Singer Ditch Association.

Roger admires his parents for raising him in a loving and caring home where he was taught about making the right decisions and having good work ethics. Feeling that community service and reliable electricity are some of the REMC's greatest strengths, Roger sees his role as a director being one of promoting reliable, clean, and affordable electricity. Looking into the future, he plans to work to help the co-op grow and keep rates affordable, offering members more ways to save energy
